That the constitution of the United States, the laws, the decision of the courts, and the means of enforcing the same, do not now afford adequate protection to the enjoyment of slave property in the territories, therefore, it is the imperative duty of Congress to intervene for the protection of said property, and pass such laws as will secure any citizen of the United States in the full enjoyment of his slave property in all the territories of the United States; and that we, if the territorial legislature shall fail to do so, to pass laws to punish citizens of a territory for trading with slaves, or harboring them, or to do any other act that will prevent the owner in the full and complete enjoyment of his property in his slave in a territory. And that our Representatives in Congress be requested, and Senators instructed, to advocate the immediate passage of such laws.

FRANKFORT.

THOMAS M. GREEN, Editor.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1860.

To Members of the Legislature.

Extra copies of the Daily Commonwealth, put up in wrappers, ready for mailing, will be furnished at 2 cents each, and extra copies of the Weekly put up in wrappers at 4 cents each.

Gentlemen wishing extra copies of either the Daily or Weekly will please leave their orders beforehand at this office, or with John M. Torn, in the H. R., or G. W. Lewis, in the Senate, Reporters for this paper. Orders for the Weekly must be left by Saturday evening of each week, as it is published on Monday; and for the Daily the day before the publication of the paper which is wanted.

Additional Taxation in aid of Common Schools.

A proposition now pending before the House of Representatives to submit to a vote of the people of Kentucky the question, "are or not you in favor of voting an additional tax of five cents on the hundred dollars worth of property in aid of the Common Schools?" has been referred to the committee on Education, whose duty it will now be to report some suitable bill for promoting the cause of Public Instruction in our Commonwealth. That this committee may impartially consider the important subject thus submitted to them, and recommend a course which will best redound to the welfare of a system in which we are all embarked, is an ardent wish with us—rising, we will add, above all party ties and associations.

We do not object to additional taxation in aid of the Common Schools. On the contrary we earnestly approve of it. Such has uniformly been the course of this journal in its recommendations to the General Assemblies and to the people of our Commonwealth. The interesting and important place we occupy as the central State in the American Union, and the pertinuous questions which now agitate American Society to its inmost depths, call upon us in solemn and unmistakable earnestness to make further provisions for the increase and diffusion of knowledge among the masses. "Education," says the profoundest of all political philosophers, "is the cheap defense of nations." Who will undertake to say that in times to come it will not be our best defense?

The subject of providing schools for teachers in Kentucky in aid of our common system will also, we are persuaded, engross the attention of the committee on Education in the House. In this matter also they will have our earnest solicitude; and, we hope, co-operation. Let them look to the interests of the Commonwealth. Let them fearlessly and faithfully discharge what they conceive to be their duty in the premises. Let them suggest suitable provisions for the education of Kentucky teachers for Kentucky youth; and, we are persuaded, that in an enlightened public opinion in Kentucky they will hereafter find their reward.

Florida and the Question of the Day.

The Florida Legislature have passed the following: That in view of our national affairs, the time for argument has passed, the time for action arrived, and that Florida, as one of the Southern States, abides the destiny of her sisters, extends her warmest assurance and co-operation in any course their united wisdom may devise. That in the event of the election of a President by a Northern party opposed to slavery as it exists in the Southern States, it will be the duty of the Southern States to prevent his inauguration, or take some measures in common to protect themselves, and as one of the Southern States, Florida hereby pledges herself to do her duty. That to give effect to this assured co-operation, the Governor and he is hereby authorized, upon the call of our sister slaveholding States, and particularly of those bordering on the free States, to take any and all steps necessary for the maintenance of their rights, and to convene the Legislature in extraordinary session should the necessity occur.

We wish to know of our Democratic friends if they consider Florida a Democratic State? If so, are such Democrats as those who passed the above resolution the men with whom the Southern Opposition are asked to unite in order to save the Union? Men who avow their determination to resist the inauguration of a President legally and Constitutionally elected, and thus throw the country into a condition of anarchy and civil war, are not the sort that patriots can co-operate with, and we decline any union with such traitors to the fundamental principles of those who adopted the Constitution. Men who will not submit quietly and patiently when fairly beaten at the polls, but advocate the forcible expulsion of the candidate of their successful opponents from the office to which he may be elected, are unfit for the duties and privileges of self-government.

Why are ladies at the breaking up of a party like arrows? Because they can't go off without a beau, and are in a quiver till they get one.

To-day the bill for renewing the appropriation to the State Agricultural Society will be brought before the Senate, and we sincerely hope will encounter no serious opposition. The Society, though yet in its infancy, has already accomplished much good, and, if encouraged, is destined to become one of the most useful institutions of the State. The premiums offered promote industry in manufactures and agriculture, and stimulate competition on the part of stock growers, and in this way yearly adds to the wealth of Kentucky. The farmers should demand that the small sum voted for the purpose of assisting the Society shall not be withdrawn. The information given in the publications of the Society are of much value, and we would be sorry to see them stopped. The President is an affable and intelligent gentleman, who takes great interest in the success of the institution, and will devote his whole energies to the transaction of his duties. Success to the appropriation.

A wedding was broken up in short meter, in Vincennes, Ind., last week. The party had assembled, supper was ready, the bride was dressing, the minister coming, and the groom, an Illinois gentleman, anxiously waiting, when the lady's brother arrived with the pleasant intelligence that the bridegroom was not what he ought to be, and a peremptory command to him to leave, which he did. The guests ate the supper and enjoyed themselves as well as if the wedding had gone on instead of the groom going off.

The peculiarities of the female constitution and the various trials to which the sex is subjected, demand an occasional recourse to stimulants. It is important, however, that these shall be of a harmless nature, and at the same time accomplish the desired end. Hostet's Celebrated Stomach Bitters is the very article. Its effects in all cases of debility are almost magical. It restores the tone of the digestive organs, infuses fresh vitality into the whole system, and gives cheerfulness to the temperament, which is the most valuable of feminine attractions. The proprietors feel flattered from the fact that many of the most prominent medical gentlemen in the Union have bestowed encomiums upon the Bitters, the virtues of which they have frequently tested and acknowledged. There are numerous counterfeits offered for sale, all of which are destitute of merit, and positively injurious to the system.

Governor Letcher, of Virginia, in his message to the Legislature of that State, on Saturday last, recommends that a convention of all the States in the Union be called to settle the question of slavery, which is at present distracting the country. He also recommends the fostering of direct trade with Europe, encouraging manufactures, the mechanical arts, and the promotion of the public works of the State.

Ireland was an inhabited country at the earliest period of recorded history. It was well known to the Greeks of the time of Aristotle, and is correctly described in the Roman Geographies. The tradition is that it was conquered by Spanish adventurers about 1,000 B. C., and that a line of one hundred and seventy-one Kings descended from the invading Prince — The Greek name of Ireland was Ierne.

PRACTICAL ADVICE TO LADIES.—The first symptoms of disease should never be disregarded. If not removed, serious evils will inevitably follow, and in seeking assistance all remedies that will act violently or reduce the strength should be avoided. They, instead of assisting nature, weaken and debilitate those organs. For female complaints, take McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It stands pre-eminent in all diseases peculiar to females. Try it; it is a delicious aromatic Cordial.

The last day's race over the Mountain course, New Orleans, for the club purse of $1,200, four miles heats, took place on Saturday with the following result:

Gen. Thos. J. Wells' ch. e. Uncle Jeff, by imp. Lecompte, out of Miss Riddle, 3 years. 2 1 1

Decision of the Court of Appeals.

[Reported expressly for the Commonwealth by JOHN M. BROWN, Attorney-at-Law, Frankfort, Ky.]

TINSLEY, WIFE ET AL. Appeal from Muhlenburg Co.

ROLL ET AL. This opinion was delivered by Chief Justice SIMPSON.

As heretofore decided, a separate estate in a married woman may be created by a parol gift, when the title to the property will pass without a transfer or conveyance in writing; but to sustain such a gift it must be clearly and distinctly proved that it was made for the sole and separate use of the wife to the exclusion of the rights of the husband. Declarations made by the husband that a slave belongs to his wife, when the gift was made previous to the act of 1846, do not even tend to prove that the wife has a separate estate in the slave. Such declarations are often made to point out merely the manner in which the slave was acquired. In this case, therefore, the claim of the wife must depend upon the nature of the gift as proved by the donor. According to his testimony the slave was given to his daughter as her own property, and he no doubt, as he states, intended that the slave should be for the exclusive use and benefit of his daughter. But such intention cannot be allowed to prevail, unless the gift be made in such a way as to express that intention clearly and unequivocally. Here the gift was not so made, and consequently vested the husband with this title to the slave. The appellants were therefore entitled to relief, and the court ruled in dismissing their petition.

The judgment is reversed, and the cause remanded, with directions to treat the slave in controversy as part of the estate of Philip Younts, deceased, and for further proceedings not inconsistent with this opinion.

MUSON COUNTY OPPOSITION MEETING.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the conservative men of Mason county, assembled in the Court House on Monday afternoon, for the purpose of adopting "united resolutions" and appointing delegates to attend the Convention at Frankfort on the 22d of February. Col. L. B. Goggin called the House to order, and moved the election of Judge Lewis Colling to the Chair, which was unanimously adopted. W. H. Savage, was appointed Secretary. Thomas A. Curran moved a committee of seven to be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, and the Chair appointed the following named persons, to wit:

Thomas A. Curran, Gen. Samuel Worthington, John G. Hickman, Chas. A. Marshall, Chas. A. Lyon, Wm. H. Rawlins, Dr. R. L. Cooper.

On motion of Mr. Curran, an invitation was extended Judge Embry, of Madison, to address the audience during the absence of the committee. The Judge having been introduced to the assembly, made an eloquent speech—he is decidedly a Union man—spoke in glowing terms of its countless blessings—denounced in the strongest terms both Northern and Southern factions, who would ruthlessly divide the Republic, and destroy the brightest hope of human freedom, and declared that it compelled to fight at all, he would be found under the banner of the Union, battling for its preservation and perpetuation. Our speaker will not permit us to notice further this very excellent speech. Samuel Forman having been called upon next, addressed the meeting in a very happy and entertaining style making many sensible and pertinent remarks. The committee then reported them solved ready, and the following resolutions were read and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we approve the call for a State Convention of the Opposition of Kentucky, at Frankfort, on the 22d of February next.

Resolved, That we believe with sincere and cordial conviction, that the people of Kentucky, of all political parties, are loyal in feeling to the American Union, and that very few citizens of this Commonwealth, if any, can contemplate any prospect of disunion without profound lamentation; yet it is our conviction that neither the policy of the Democratic party, nor the policy of the Republican party, is conservative, or calculated to allay the present alarming disturbances of our country, or to secure to the citizens of the United States the blessings of peace, of universal love of country, and of that fraternity of feeling which should exist among the individual citizens of a common country; and that as lovers of our country, we cannot coincide with either of those parties in its views of National policy, or act with either of them, so long as there remains to us any hope, by adherence to a more conservative and wiser policy of securing to ourselves and all our fellow citizens the blessings which we have indicated, and we wish to be regarded as standing opposed to the errors and extremes of each of said parties, and ready to meet and harmonize with a great Union and Conservative Party, founded upon the Constitution and the Union of these States.

Resolved, That the following persons be, and they are hereby appointed delegates to attend the State Convention of the Opposition, at Frankfort, on the 22d of February next, to wit:

Mineray—Samuel Forman, Dr. W. H. Roberson, James S. Pepper, Daniel Runyan, A. J. Coburn.

Germantown—Dr. J. A. Coburn, B. W. Wood, Jr., Darius Norris, Samuel F. Pollock, Dr. Isaac Pollock, A. D. Frazee.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazing puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over half a million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maturity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exacting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigoriators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

SECOND VOLUME OF THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

Only One Dollar Per Annum!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!!

The first Volume of the "KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the June number, and the Second Volume will commence in July. We promised a year ago to try and give to the Agriculturalists and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we deserved that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and try and send us one or more additional names for the SECOND VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume have about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. The publication of the June number has redeemed that pledge.

Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

The "KENTUCKY FARMER" will still be published monthly, in its present form of sixteen large quartos, pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid in advance.

Subscriptions can be forwarded to us by mail, at a cost. Letters addressed to us need not be postmarked.

Simply address A. G. HODGES, Frankfort, Ky.
